

Occupational Health and Safety Accord

As partners promoting prevention of incidents and occupational diseases, we declare that:

Together in partnership, we will strive to realise the following ideals:

- a healthy and safe working environment
- the development of best practises in occupational health and safety
- mitigate and eliminate incidents, occupational diseases and fatalities in the workplace

As occupational health and safety is a fundamental right, we embrace the principles enshrined in the ILO Convention 155 and ILO Convention 187

We commit ourselves to:

- uphold the occupational health and safety principles as enshrined in the Bill of Rights
- proactively prevent injuries and diseases
- integrate occupational health and safety into all business processes and strategies
- promote occupational health and safety awareness
- participate in the development of occupational health and safety legislation that improves workers health, safety, productivity and supports business continuity
- improve the tripartite relationship to the benefit of all in our country
- abide by the requirements of occupational health and safety legislation
- train workers and managers on health and safety working practices
- build and maintain an effective and efficient occupational health and safety institutional framework

We commit ourselves to constructively work together, in the realization of occupational health and safety as a fundamental right for all workers.
